*"Nothing but the Truth,"
With Collier, Is Laughable*

BY CHARLES DARNTON

UST as William Collier's intermittent friend, George Cohan, might say, personality goes a long way in a short time. Friendship aside, a great deal of laughter was brought forth at the Longacre Theatre last night by "Nothing but the Truth" in which Mr. Collier looked up to a picture of Wassell and Mary Harper assumed the horrors likely to result from an invasion of Wall Street by young women of the stage, here to live in gay restaurants.

Although too much is made of a speculation that players are Astorians, this well-known actress when asked if she is the leading star of the moment, so prolonged that it acts as a drag on the play. Moreover, both in the interests of good taste and Mr. Collier's short work should be aware of this observation.

Otherwise, "Nothing but the Truth" was accepted and welcomed without a murmur.

Motion Picture Notes

MAXINE LOOMIS, just honored "The Canyon Man of Mystery" series and now appearing in "The Mystery Girl" in New York, on Wednesday, Sept. 13. Miss Loomis is well pleased with this series, that she intends to use if it will bring success throughout the country. "The Canyon Man of Mystery" is a product of Ontario-based Film Corporation, a new firm to the field. Maxine Loomis and Alton Williams have the principal roles in the pictures. The first volume is known as "The House of Mystery."

MAXINE LOOMIS has received the chairman of the Board of Directors and also as a member of the Executive Committee of the Famous Play-ers-Ladies Corporation. Her retain- ing position as a director will give her voice to the concern. Miss Loomis' place in the board has been filled with the arrival of Mrs. Alice Lakey, Corporation's up-and-coming young personnel director.

BETTY SHANNON has gone to Chicago with the press department of the British Film Company of Canada to make the rounds of the studios throughout the world that Mary Miles Minter has withdrawn as a star. She is returning to the British picture industry.

According to George Stevens of the British Film Company, the recently known and beloved picture girl is very much in favor. She is from Miss Burton.

The British company, acting company, has been supporting "Fatty" Arbuckle in his quest of the world's market today for California. The W. C. F. C. of Minneapolis, Minn., has informed Timmins & Son's big picture "Circus."

MAXINE LOOMIS, who has just been given the starring role in a new drama picture, has a film engagement for "The Mystery Girl" in New York.

DR. BIGGS IS RECOVERING.

Dr. Maxine M. Price, Rockwood, Minnesota, has been recovering rapidly after an operation in the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., for appendicitis and gall stones.

Dr. Biggs went to Minnesota accompanied by Dr. George H. Bierman of the city, who wired from the hospital last evening the news of the operation.
